General Data Protection Regulation

On the 25th May 2018 the new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) shall come into effect. Under this new law, European standards in data protection shall align with current technology standards. This is good news for all individuals who are affected by data processing and shall maintain standards in relation to the security of your personal data.

We have now updated our Privacy Policy in accordance with the new GDPR.

What this means for you:

- Further protection of your personal data;
- Standardisation of the European data protection; and
- Adoption of data protection in line with technology changes.

Please contact the International Sugar Organization if you have any questions.
