Office Closure - Third Update

The Executive Director would like to inform you that due to the current UK Government guidelines, requesting that people continue to work from home unless it's imperative they come in, the ISO Secretariat office will remain closed until further notice.

All ISO staff will continue to work from home and are all reachable, preferably by email, and also by phone. The phone number will still be working and the phone lines will be answered. So far, the ISO Secretariat has demonstrated that during this lockdown its level of professional service remains solid and covers all the main areas of relevance.

This situation will be regularly reviewed by the Executive Director with the next review date being 31 July 2020. You will continue to be kept informed of any change in circumstances.
