An introduction to the Colombian Sugar Industry ISO Zoom Series - April and May 2021

The Executive Director would like to draw your attention to an exciting new ISO Zoom series focusing exclusively on the innovative and ground-breaking developments within the Colombian sugar industry. These four Zooms taking place in April and May 2021 are a precursor to the ISO's International Workshop (virtual), planned as part of the "Colombian Sugar Week" from 14-18 June. The Workshop, entitled "Innovation, diversification & sustainability in sugarcane Agribusiness: the Colombian case" will take place on 15 & 16 June (details to follow).

The dates and titles for the Zooms are as follows and attendance at these Zooms will be free of charge to all.

Tuesday, 13 April @ 14:00 (UK time BST):
Sustainability and Efficiency in Ingenio Risaralda

Tuesday, 27 April @ 14:00 (UK time BST):
Sustainable communities: a successful case of business community at Ingenio Riopaila Castilla

Tuesday, 11 May @ 14:00 (UK time BST):
Water for life and sustainability: watershed conservation

Tuesday, 25 May @ 14:00 (UK time BST):
Biological controls in the Colombian sugarcane agribusiness

The ISO Secretariat will circulate a reminder one week ahead of each Zoom so that you can register your interest and be included in the e-mail send out to receive the link to join on the day of the Zoom.
